

I believe the law should be kept the way it is. I also agree that cell phones numbers should be added to this list. Some of us only use cell phones as our only means of getting in touch with us. Cell phone companies should not be allowed to cell our private numbers to telemarketing companies and telemarketing companies should not be allowed to call our cell phones. That cost us money, not them.